RELIGIOUS FEELING IN ENGLAND .- The pre sent generation has been called indifferent to religion, but the conversions to and from Roman Catholicism in England, prove that it is more earnest in this respect than many that have gone before.

As types, in a certain degree, of these changes we may instance the cases of the Duchess of Sutherland and the Duke of Norfolk, the former a late convert to Roman Catholicism, the latter to Protestantism.

On the other hand, the conversion of the Duke of Norfolk to Protestantism is not less a triumph for the established church. This nobleman is the possessor of the oldest existing dukedom in England, and takes rank accord-ingly ahead of all other dukes, except those of the blood royal. His family, moreover, has always been Roman Catholic—being one of the

These are conversions in the higher ranks of life. But the same changes are working in all classes. The indefatigable proselytism of the Roman Catholic clergy, their kindness to the poor, and other causes, are annually enrolling in the communion of the ancient church thousands of the English peasantry. In Ireland, meantime, conversions to Protestantism, from among the same class, are becoming every-day occurrences .- Phila. Eve. Bulletin.

highly respectable citizens speaks for Hampton's VLGETABLE TINCTURE;

Messrs. Mortimer of Mesoray:—Gentlemen: My daughter having been affle cited for more than a year with the spinal disease, and having tried every remedy that was prescribed by mesor of our best physicians, without affording her and apparent relief. I fortunately was advised by affled, to try a bottle of "Dr. Hampton's Veystable Theetar", "which relieved her of her pain in less than two", y-four hours. I am pleased to say that since she will be affected by the string of the string paining strength, which I attribute entirely to the restorative properties of this medicine. I believe if it were more extensively used, it would do more good in the removal of such diseases incident to the human family than what is usually prescribed.

INSTRUCTION IN MUSIC.

THE UNDERSIGNED wishes to acquaint his friends and the public that he will continue the duties of his profession in giving instruction on the Pisno and in Vocal Music; also lessons given on the Organ and Soraphine, with the Science of Harmony, at his residence, or at the private dwellings of his pupils.

The arrangements are such that pupils commencing or already advanced in their musical studies can, at their option, receive such lessons as may best promise their improvement. It is, also, of scrious interest to those who wish to be well instructed in music, that they should begin and follow the first courses of lessons in as regular order as possible, as all future success will depend upon it.

His recommendations for success in teaching for the last ten years in Washington and vicinity are of the highest.

This well known and extensive establishment invites Merchants, Manufacturers, and Bankers, to an investigation of its system, and gratuitious test of its records of the standing and responsibility c. traders in the U. States.

Our increased patronage has enabled us, during the past year, to open offices in Gincinnati, Louisville, St. Louis, and New Orleans; these, in connection with our long established offices in Roston, New York, and Baltimore, enable us to offer facilities and advantages which time and experience alone could accumulate, and which we believe are unequalled.

We are prepared to make collections in any of the States, Territories, Canada, England, Ireland, Scottand, France, Germany, and in any commercial port of the world, and will pay particular attention to old and doubtful debts, in the collection of which class we have extraordinary facilities, and have been unusually successful.

Having full lists and reports of nearly all the Attorneys in the United States, we are at all times prepared to furnish you, granultously, the names of good and responsible lawyers in any part of the United States and Canadas.

Connected with our Agency is a Commissioner for nearly all the States, who is enabled to afford every facility and legal form for preparing accounts, &c., for immediate use, thereby avoiding a delay often fatal to the collection of a debt.

First Premium Grand and Square Pianos.

KNADE & GÆIILE, Manufacturers, Nos. 4, 6, 8, 9, and 11 Eutaw street, Baltimore. New tributes to the excellence of Ealtimore made Piano Fortes. The maryland Justitute, at their last exhibition, awarded to us the First Premium for the best Grand Piano, and also the First Premium for the best Square Piano exhibited. It will be recollected that in 1848, our Piano also received the First Premium by the same Institute.

Such testimonials are not easily earned, and are not to be lightly regarded. We may therefore say that having the health of the First Premium, wherever our Instruments met with competition, we offer them to the public with a confidence we might not otherwise avow, guaranteeing all Instruments made by us to give ratisfaction, or they may be exchanged within six months from day of sale. The durability of our workmanship we further guarantee for five years.

Having just completed large additions to our Manufactury, we hope now to supply all who may honor us with the urpatronage; and we invite all who desire a superior last, ument, carefully adapted to the climate—a very important matter, and which we have made our careful study—'c call and examine our various styles, which we are constactly finishing, and which will be sold at the lowest mark et price for cash or approved paper.

In addition to the above public testimonials, our Pianom are recommended in terms of the highest praise by the following eminent artists, whose certificates can be seen at our Warerooms: Charles Boches, the great composer and musical director to Mad. A. Rishop; Mr. Geo. Knoop', Miss Adele and Charles Holmstock, and other disting guished performers. To the many accomplished Professor, and Amateurs, by whom our Pianos are constantly used, whilst making our thynkful acknowledgments to them we refer for further test monials.
